Management of Personal Information at Keio University

Keio University handles personal information in a secure and appropriate manner and in compliance with the “Keio University Basic Policy Concerning Protection of Personal Information” and the “Keio University Rules to Protect Personal Information.”

The names of individuals, their addresses, and other personal information provided during application will be used by the various departments of Keio University to:

① Implement entrance examinations (processing applications and holding exams),
② Announce final results,
③ Carry out admissions procedures,
④ Carry out administration, communication, and procedures for matters concerning academic affairs after enrollment,
⑤ Carry out administration, communication, and procedures for matters concerning general student life after enrollment, as well as to manage any other matters that accompany these items.

For the above functions, part of the work is outsourced to contractors entrusted by the Keio University Admissions Center (hereinafter “entrusted contractors”). When outsourcing, part or all of the personal information individuals have provided to Keio University may be shared with the entrusted contractors to the extent necessary to carry out the work.

In principle, Keio University will not disclose personal information of individuals to third parties. In exceptional circumstances, such as when there is a legal obligation to do so, when determined to be necessary to protect the life, health, property, or other rights and interests of a student or a third party, or in other cases where there is an urgent need but consent from the individuals concerned cannot be obtained, personal information may be disclosed to third parties. In addition, data on personal information that has been statistically processed in a way that does not identify any individual will be used as survey and research material for the selection of new students to the university. Thank you for your understanding.

Special Measures for Applicants in Areas Hit by Large-scale Natural Disasters

In order to reduce the financial burden on applicants who live in areas affected by large-scale natural disasters (designated by the Japanese Government as a “Disaster of Extreme Severity”), Keio University may take special measures in accordance with the situation in the affected areas. Please check for further details on applications and procedures (only available in Japanese) under the information for undergraduate admissions on the Keio University Admissions Center website:

http://www.admissions.keio.ac.jp/

Applicants with Disabilities

If you have a disability and need special provisions for admissions procedures and enrollment, please contact the Admissions Center at least one month before the start of the application period.
1. Important Notes on Applications

1. Under no circumstances can we accept incomplete applications, late applications, or applications that are not accompanied by full payment of the prescribed application fee by the corresponding deadline. Furthermore, supplemental application materials will not be accepted after the end of the application period except when special permission has been granted. Therefore, you should make sure you have prepared all the required documentation before submitting your application.

2. Keio University does not notify you of your application status, including informing you about parts of the application that are missing or incomplete, as it is your responsibility to complete your application by the given deadline.

3. The following policy applies in the event that information provided in the application or the individual eligibility review is discovered to be incorrect or fraudulent, regardless of the reason:

   a. While the applicant is in the application or screening process

      The applicant will be deemed to be ineligible for the PEARL programme, and the application fee he/she has paid will not be refunded.

   b. After the applicant has been accepted for enrollment

      The applicant's acceptance for enrollment will be revoked, and the application fee he/she has paid will not be refunded.

      The required academic fees and expenses that have already been paid will be refunded.

   c. After the applicant has enrolled in the PEARL programme

      The applicant will be expelled from the PEARL programme, and neither the application fee nor the required academic fees and expenses he/she has paid will be refunded.

4. If your name is not written consistently across all of your required application documents, make sure to contact Keio University Admissions Center by e-mail with an explanation of the discrepancy.

5. Queries concerning the screening for eligibility requirements and the screening results will not be accepted.

6. Application documents and other related material will not be returned under any circumstances.

7. If you are an applicant whose status is "expected graduation from high school," you are required to graduate from high school by 21 September 2020. If you fail to do so, your enrollment will be cancelled.

8. If you are an applicant whose status is "expected IB Diploma recipient," you are required to be awarded an IB Diploma by 21 September 2020. If you fail to do so, your enrollment will be cancelled.

9. Unless otherwise noted, all times and dates indicated in the Admissions Procedures for the PEARL Programme website are in Japan Standard Time (JST, UTC+09).

10. In unforeseen circumstances, the Faculty of Economics may change the schedule for admissions. In principle, Keio University does not bear the responsibility for any inconvenience, cost, or any kind of loss caused to applicants as a result of this rescheduling. As the university website will be used to provide information and supplemental communication pertaining to the above, applicants are advised to check the following website regularly:

2. Admission Quota

   Approximately 100 through all three application periods

3. Application and Enrollment Process

   STEP 1: Check Your Eligibility
   Before proceeding with your admissions procedures, check your eligibility for the PEARL programme by reading the Eligibility Requirements section (page 6).

   STEP 2: Check the Application Documents
   Confirm the required documents in the Application Documents section (page 8).
STEP 3: Send the Necessary Documents by Post
Send the application documents by post. Submissions cannot be made by any other means.

STEP 4: Complete the Online Application
Fill out all the prescribed forms on the online application system to complete the online application.

STEP 5: Pay the Application Fee
Pay the application fee by credit card.

STEP 6: Check Your Results
Check the screening results on your “My Page”.

STEP 7: Carry Out the Procedures for Enrollment Registration
Complete the procedures for enrollment registration by following the instructions provided to successful applicants.

4. Eligibility Requirements
Applicants who meet one or more of the following requirements may apply to the PEARL programme.

(1) Those who, by 21 September 2020, have completed, or are expected to complete, 12 years of formal education in Japanese schools accredited by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT).

(2) Those who have completed, or are expected to complete, 12 years or more of formal education in foreign schools outside Japan by 21 September 2020 (all 12 years do not have to be spent at schools overseas).

(3) Those who, by 21 September 2020, have completed, or are expected to complete, 12 years or more of formal education at schools for international students in Japan accredited by an international accrediting organization (WASC, CIS, or ACSI), or foreign schools in Japan accredited by MEXT to be equivalent to a high school outside of Japan.
(4) Those who have passed an examination demonstrating academic ability equivalent to 12 years of formal education, such as the GED (General Educational Development) test or another high school equivalency exam (Upper Secondary School Equivalency Examination 高等学校卒業程度認定試験), and will be 18 years of age by 21 September 2020.

(5) Those who have been recognised individually by Keio University as having qualifications equivalent to (1), (2), (3), or (4) above, and will be 18 years of age by 21 September 2020.

* If an applicant has completed a 12-year (or more) school curriculum in less than 12 years because of appropriate reasons (e.g., skipping grades or early graduation), he/she will be regarded as having met the above requirements. In order to prove his/her eligibility, the applicant is required to submit an official document issued from his/her school explaining the reason(s) for the early completion, the details such as the skipped grade(s), and the dates that apply.

* If you wish to be considered under requirement (5), you should contact the Admissions Center at least one month before the start of the application period in order to confirm the details, such as required documents and the application period for individual screening. Keio University will then determine whether you are eligible to apply under item (5).

<Notes>
・Applicants who are not successful in one application period can reapply during the subsequent application periods.
・Applying for the PEARL programme does not affect an individual's eligibility status to apply for other entry exams (General Entrance Examination 一般入試, Admissions for Returnee Students 帰国生入試, and Admissions for International Students 留学生入試) offered by the Faculty of Economics.
・Individuals who have applied for other entry exams (General Entrance Examination 一般入試, Admissions for Returnee Students 帰国生入試, and Admissions for International Students 留学生入試) offered by the Faculty of Economics can still apply to the PEARL programme provided they meet the eligibility requirements.

Upon reviewing your application documents, the Admissions Center may get in contact with you to clarify information in your application. Make sure to check your e-mail frequently.

(1) Application Form
- Fill out in English the prescribed forms on the online application system. Do not print them out and submit them by post.

(2) Standardised Test Scores
- Submit one (or more) of the following:
  a. International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma (or predicted grades)
  b. SAT Scores
  c. ACT Scores

<Notes for all applicants>
- No other test scores, qualifications, diplomas, or certificates are accepted in lieu of IB, SAT, or ACT scores.
- There are no "cut-off" IB, SAT, or ACT scores.
- Electronic score reports cannot be accepted.
  *For SAT, only the electronic score reporting option is displayed on the College Board website due to their settings. Go ahead and send your score reports through the website as we are set up to receive paper-based score reports.
- Only the scores obtained after October 2017 will be accepted for screening.
- New scores will not be accepted after the application deadline.

<Notes for applicants submitting IB Diploma (or predicted grades)>
You must do both of the following:
1. Input your scores on the online application system.
2. Do either A. or B.
   A. If you are an IB Diploma holder, have the testing agency send an official transcript of grades for the IBDP directly to the Keio University Admissions Center.
   B. If you are an IB Diploma candidate, request your high school to send an original document indicating your IB predicted grades directly to the Keio University Admissions Center.
  *Note that the Keio University Admissions Center must receive your scores during each of the specified application periods. Since it can take several weeks for the scores to reach us, we strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to ask the testing agency or your high school to send your scores to the Keio University Admissions Center.

<Notes for applicants submitting SAT or ACT scores>
You must do all four of the following:

1. Input your scores on the online application system.

2. Have the testing agency send the SAT Official Score Report or the ACT College Report directly to the Keio University Admissions Center. Keio University's institution code for SAT is 0773 and for ACT is 7048.
   *Note that the Keio University Admissions Center must receive your scores during each of the specified application periods. Since it can take several weeks for the scores to reach us, we strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to ask the testing agency to send your scores to the Keio University Admissions Center.

3. Submit a printed copy of the screen or e-mail which clearly shows that you have arranged to have your SAT or ACT scores sent directly by the testing agency to the Keio University Admissions Center. It must be uploaded on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit by post.

4. Submit a copy of your SAT Score Report or ACT Student Report, or a copy of your SAT or ACT scores printed out from the testing agency's website. It must be uploaded on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit by post.

*In case your scores sent from the testing agency do not arrive at the Keio University Admissions Center during each of the specified application periods, the copy mentioned above will be used for screening. We will, however, check the copy against the score report issued by the testing agency for accuracy once it reaches us, and if any incorrect or fraudulent information is discovered, the applicant will be treated as stated in paragraph 3 of the Important Notes on Applications section (page 4).

- For applicants submitting SAT scores, the optional essay is required.
- For applicants submitting ACT scores, the optional writing component of the ACT test is required.
(3) TOEFL iBT and/or IELTS Scores

- All applicants, including native English speakers, are required to submit TOEFL iBT and/or IELTS Scores.
- There is no "cut-off" score for TOEFL iBT or IELTS.
- TOEFL "MyBest™ scores" are not evaluated.
- Electronic score reports cannot be accepted.
- Scores more than two years old cannot be accepted.
- New scores will not be accepted after the application deadline.
- You must do all four of the following:
  1. Input your scores on the online application system.
  2. Have the testing agency send the official scores directly to the Keio University Admissions Center. Keio University's institution code for TOEFL is 0773.
     *Note that the Keio University Admissions Center must receive your scores during each of the specified application periods. Since it can take several weeks for the scores to reach us, we strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to ask the testing agency to send your scores to the Keio University Admissions Center.
  3. Submit a printed copy of the screen or e-mail which clearly shows that you have arranged to have your TOEFL or IELTS scores sent directly by the testing agency to the Keio University Admissions Center. It must be uploaded on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit by post.
  4. Submit a copy of your TOEFL Test Taker Score Report or IELTS original Test Report Form, or a copy of your TOEFL or IELTS scores printed out from the testing agency's website. It must be uploaded on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit by post.

*In case your scores sent from the testing agency do not arrive at the Keio University Admissions Center during each of the specified application periods, the copy mentioned above will be used for screening. We will, however, check the copy against the score report issued by the testing agency for accuracy once it reaches us, and if any incorrect or fraudulent information is discovered, the applicant will be treated as stated in paragraph 3 of the Important Notes on Applications section (page 4).

(4) Written Statement of the Applicant's Academic and Future Goals (in English)

- This document should explain why you are applying to the PEARL programme, in relation to your academic and future goals.
• Fill out the prescribed forms on the online application system. Do not print out and submit the written statement by post.
• The length of this written statement should be between two to four pages (either single- or double-spacing is accepted) in A4 or US Letter size format.

(5) Letter(s) of Reference (in English or Japanese)
• Applicants are required to submit a Letter of Reference from a person who is able to evaluate them objectively (hereafter, ‘the writer’).
• The writer may be anyone excluding parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, spouses, siblings, and children/grandchildren.
• You must submit at least one Letter of Reference. If you wish to submit more than one, up to three Letters of Reference will be accepted.
• Register the e-mail address(es) of the writer(s) on the online application system. We strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to do so.
• After registering the e-mail address(es), the writer(s) will receive an e-mail asking him or her to write a Letter of Reference for the applicant.
• The writer must complete the Letter of Reference by filling out the prescribed form on the online application system.

(6) High School Graduation Certificate (or a document certifying your expected graduation, in English or Japanese)
• Submit by post your high school graduation certificate or a document certifying your expected graduation. The certificate may be sent to the Keio University Admissions Center either by the applicant or the school issuing the certificate.
• The certificate must include the applicant's full name, date of birth, the month of graduation or expected graduation, and the date of issuance.
• The date of issuance for a certificate of expected graduation should be after 1 September 2019.
• The certificate must be the original or a certified true copy. A certified true copy is a photocopy of an original document that has been stamped or endorsed by the issuing school. The following are not accepted:
  • Uncertified photocopies of the originals
  • Uncertified photocopies of certified true copies
  • Digital versions of the originals
  • Digital versions of certified true copies
• Applicants who have graduated, or are expected to graduate from a Japanese school are required to submit an Official School Report (Chosasho) instead of a high school graduation certificate or a document certifying your expected graduation.

(7) High School Academic Transcripts (in English or Japanese)

- Submit your high school academic transcript by post. The transcript may be sent to the Keio University Admissions Center either by the applicant or the school issuing the transcripts.
- The transcript must include the date of issuance.
- The transcript must be the original or a certified true copy. A certified true copy is a photocopy of an original document that has been stamped or endorsed by the issuing school. The following are not accepted:
  - Uncertified photocopies of the originals
  - Uncertified photocopies of certified true copies
  - Digital versions of the originals
  - Digital versions of certified true copies
- The transcript should be a final transcript, showing all coursework completed. For applicants who are expected to graduate, you must send a transcript showing coursework through the most recently completed school term.
- For applicants who have attended more than one high school, an official transcript issued by each high school will be required only if the grades from the earlier school(s) do not appear on your final transcript.
- Applicants who have graduated, or are expected to graduate from a Japanese school are required to submit an Official School Report (Chosasho) instead of a high school academic transcript.

- Upload a copy of your passport photo page on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit it by post.
- If you are a citizen of more than one country, please upload copies of all your passports.
- If it is not possible to submit a copy of your passport, a copy of an identification card/document such as a driving license or residence card will also be accepted. It is mandatory that the identification includes a photo of the applicant.

If you wish, you may also submit the following documents:

(9) SAT Subject Tests Scores (Optional)
- Have the testing agency send your SAT Subject Tests scores directly to the Keio University Admissions Center. Keio University's institution code for SAT is 0773.
- Submit a printed copy of the screen or the e-mail which clearly shows that you have arranged to have your SAT Subject Tests scores sent directly by the testing agency to the Keio University Admissions Center. It must be uploaded on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit by post.
- Submit a copy of your SAT Examinee's Score Report, or a copy of your SAT Subject Tests scores printed out from the testing agency's website. It must be uploaded on the online application system as a PDF file. Do not print out and submit by post.

(10) Any other materials including standardised national examination scores (if deemed relevant) (Optional)
- Upload them on the online application system as a PDF file. The size of the documents must be no larger than 10MB in total. Do not print out and submit the materials by post.

<Notes for applicants who reapply>
If you apply multiple times, you will be required to create a new account on the online application system and submit items (1), (4), (5), (8), and (10) online each time.
If you make a new account using the same e-mail address as the one you registered in the previous application period, then items (1), (4), (5), (8), and (10) submitted during the previous application period can be copied over for the current application period.
Items (2)(), (3), (6), (7)(), and (9) can be transferred over to the new application in the same year if you wish.
*Note that applicants who are expected to graduate from high school must submit their latest IB predicted grades (if applicable) and a new high school academic transcript including the most up-to-date grades and achievements each time an application is made.

7. Postal Address
Please send hard copy materials by post to:
PEARL Team, Admissions Center, Keio University
2-15-45, Mita, Minato-ku, Tokyo 108-8345, Japan
（〒108-8345 港区三田2-15-45 慶應義塾大学入学センター PEARL Team）
8. Payment of Application Fee
Applicants are required to pay an application fee of JPY 35,000. The periods for making this payment are as follows:

- Application period I:
  10:00 a.m. on Friday, 18 October 2019 through 3:00 p.m. on Friday, 29 November 2019 (JST)

- Application period II:
  10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, 11 December 2019 through 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, 29 January 2020 (JST)

- Application period III:
  10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, 25 February 2020 through 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, 7 April 2020 (JST)

A detailed guide on how to make the application fee payment can be viewed during the payment periods at the following link:

Be sure to read the instructions above, and make the payment by credit card through this website.

<Notes>
1. Refund of application fee
   - A refund of the application fee is not possible under any circumstances.
2. Carryover of application fee
   - Applicants who re-apply during subsequent application periods are required to pay the application fee of JPY 35,000 each time they apply.
   - The application fee you have paid will only be carried over to the subsequent application periods in the same year if you do not receive the “Application Completed Notification E-mail.” (Namely your application was not processed because you did not complete all parts of the application. See the Announcement of Results section below.)
9. Announcement of Results
Once your application has fulfilled all of the requirements for it to be reviewed, you will receive an “Application Completed Notification E-mail” two weeks prior to the date of the announcement of results.

Screening results will be announced on your “My Page” from 10:00 a.m. on the date of the announcement of results (JST). Log in to your “My Page” to confirm the results.

The university will not provide any information regarding results by any other means, including phone, fax, or e-mail. Queries concerning screening results will not be accepted.

10. Procedures for Enrollment Registration
Enrollment registration will be completed upon performing the following 3 procedures during the designated periods. Detailed instructions for enrollment registration will be available for successful applicants on their “My Page” upon the announcement of results.

STEP 1: Pay the required academic fees and expenses

STEP 2: Complete enrollment registration on the online enrollment system

STEP 3: Send high school graduation certificate or official transcript of grades for the IBDP by post (if applicable)
