•Please note that among the academic fees and expenses, the amount to be paid for basic registration, registration, tuition, and facilities fees is determined each year by applying the sliding scale system as stipulated in the University Rules and Regulations. The standard for the rate of increase is based on the slide rate (the rate of increase for the salary of national government employees as announced in the National Personnel Authority's annual salary recommendations in the previous year, etc.).

•The admission fee and the Student Health Care Mutual Aid Association registration fee (100 yen), which is included in other fees, are only collected in the first year. This is not included in the total amount for currently enrolled students.

•The above amounts also apply to students who have graduated from a Keio University undergraduate faculty or graduate school.

•Academic fees and expenses (excluding the admission fee) and other fees can be paid in two annual installments at the end of April for the Spring Semester and the end of October for the Fall Semester. However, part of the other fees is collected as a lump sum in the Spring Semester.

•Other fees which are collected by the university on behalf of other organizations may be revised during the course of a student's attendance.

•The Student's Professional Indemnity Insurance will be collected once for each one-year period of enrollment. Accordingly, the insurance fee will be collected every year in April (Spring Semester) for those admitted in April, and every year in October (Fall Semester) for those admitted in September.

*1 This is the academic fees and expenses for students who enroll beyond the standard study period of one year and are enrolled for a one-year period in their second year (when enrolled part-time for one year).

*2 This is the academic fees and expenses for students who enroll beyond the standard study period of one year and are enrolled for a six-month period in their second year (when enrolled part-time for six months).
