• Please note that among the Academic Fees and Expenses, the Registration (both types), Tuition, and Facilities Fees, are subject to change from year to year based on a sliding scale system as stipulated in the University Rules and Regulations. We ask for your understanding in advance.
The standard for the rate of increase is based on the slide rate (the rate of increase for the salary of national government employees as announced in the National Personnel Authority's annual salary recommendations in the previous year, etc.).

• The Admission Fee and the Student Health Care Mutual Aid Association Registration Fee (100 yen), which is included in Other Fees, are only collected in the first year and are not included in the total academic fees for current students.

• The above amounts also apply to students who have graduated from a Keio University undergraduate faculty or graduate school.

• Academic Fees and Expenses (excluding the Admission Fee) and Other Fees can be paid in two annual installments at the end of April for the Spring Semester and the end of October for the Fall Semester.
However, part of the Other Fees is collected as a lump sum in the Spring Semester.

• Other Fees which are collected by the university on behalf of other organizations may be revised during the course of a student's attendance.

• Student's Professional Indemnity Insurance will be collected once for each year of enrollment; in April for April enrollees (Spring Semester) and October for September enrollees (Fall Semester).

*1 These are the Academic Fees and Expenses for students who have been enrolled for more than the standard period of study (one year) enrolled for one year in the second year level (when enrolled as part-time for one year).

*2 These are the Academic Fees and Expenses for students who have been enrolled for more than the standard period of study (one year) enrolled for six months in the second year level (when enrolled as part-time for six months).
