FAQs

Q: How many and how long can I borrow items?
A: You can borrow as many as you would like. The loan period depends on the status of the item. Please refer to the table below.*

Q: Do you charge overdue fine?
A: Yes. 10 yen per day for a delayed item.

Q: Where is the library calendar?
A: It is on the top page of our website. It is also posted on the bulletin board at the entrance.

Q: Where is the lost-and-found?
A: We keep found items at the Circulation Counter during the day, then leave them to the Student Office on the following business day.

Q: Where can I make color photocopies?
A: The copy machine in the library is black and white only. Please visit the convenience store at the campus.

Q: Where can I ask for help in using computers/Wi-Fi?
A: Please visit the Keio Information Center, also known as KIC. KIC is located on the basement floor of Sosokan Building.

[About Wi-Fi]

Q: Where can I ask for help in finding library items?
A: Please visit the Reference Desk.

Q: What can I do using KOSMOS?
A: Besides searching library items, you may also renew loan periods, place holds on library items, and check your loan history, by signing in to My Library.

Q: Can I request books and journals that are not held by this library?
A: Yes. We welcome either purchase requests or Inter Library Loan requests. Ask a library staff for details.

Q: Can I eat or drink in the library?
A: Only drinks in spill-proof containers, such as plastic or Thermos bottles, are allowed.

Q: Can I visit libraries of other Keio campuses?
A: Yes. Bring your student/faculty ID card or library card. As exceptions, prior procedures are required to enter Kyoseikan (Hiyoshi) and Media Center for Pharmaceutical Sciences.

Q: How can I access e-journals, e-books and databases?
A: You may access e-journals and e-books via KOSMOS. For databases, start off from our website.

START!

1F (Sosokan Bldg)

Let's move to the basement floor!

B1F (Sosokan Bldg)

Go through to the Main Building!

1F (Main Bldg)

This is Lounge area. Light-reading books such as novels, travel guides as well as newspapers are available. Good for taking a break.

The Study Room is open even after the library is closed. It's also open on Sundays during the semester. (For night and Sunday use, application required).

KOSMOS (online catalog) gives you details of where library item is held across the campuses.

Go up to the 2nd floor!

2F (Main Bldg)

Academic books are shelved on the 2nd floor. You can also request books held by other Keio libraries.

Academic journals, mainly located on the 1st floor, are arranged in alphabetical order by title. Mostly foreign journals are available via our website. KeioID is required to use electronic resources.

PCs are also available in the library. To log in, you need your own account. Laptops can connect to Wi-Fi by setting up with KeioID authentication.

Reference Desk offers assistance on resources of the library. (8:45 am to 5 pm on weekdays)

Theses/Dissertations are shelved in the corner room. Electronic papers submitted after fall semester in 2010 are available iStar limited in Yagami campus.

The Group Study Room is suitable for discussion. No reservation is needed to use the room. You can also rent a projector.

Idea room is appropriate for group study as well. You can write down your ideas on the all-whiteboard wall.

Back to the 1st floor!

The main content area features a 'Catalog' tab, a 'KOSMOS' search bar, and a 'Pickup Contents' section with links to 'Mastering Library Search: KOSMOS & Database Navi', 'ONLINE LIBRARY TOUR', and 'Waivers, Discounts and Grants for Article Processing Charges (APCs)'. The 'News/Event' section lists recent updates, including a notice of scheduled maintenance for online services and a KOSMOS maintenance schedule.

KOSMOS (Library Catalog)

KOSMOS is a tool for searching academic information and resources.

- Click the magnifying glass (🔍) to check the search scope.
- Type in keywords (title, author, subject, etc.).

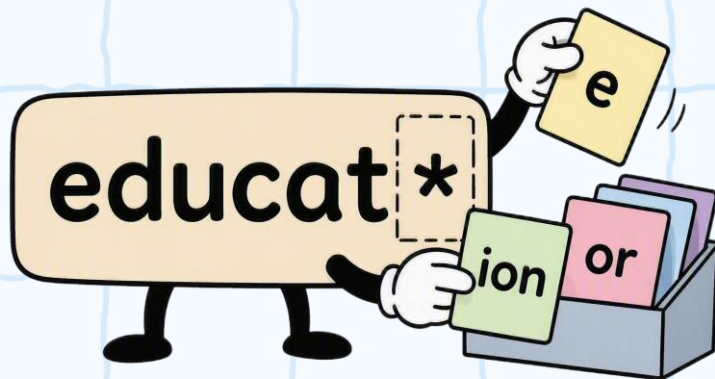

General Search Tips

Truncation

Use an asterisk (*) to search for different forms of a word.

e.g., educat*

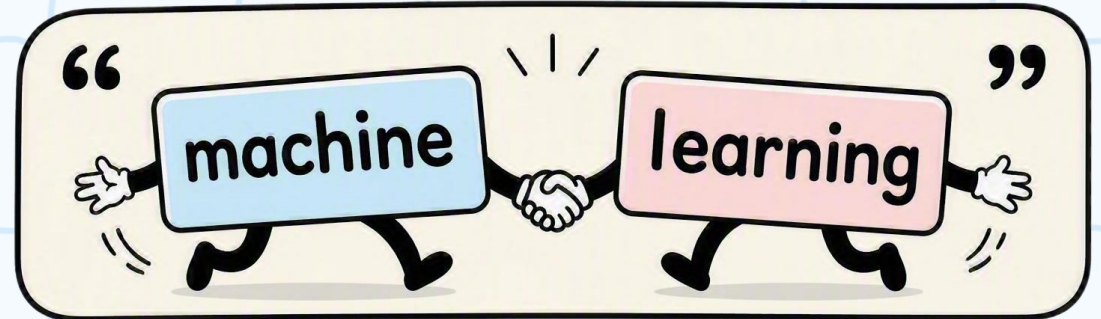

⇒ educate, education,
educational, educator...

Phrase Search

Use double quotation marks (" ") to search as an exact phrase, not as separate words.

e.g., "machine learning",
"solar cell"

Searching with KOSMOS

The screenshot shows the KOSMOS search interface. A search bar at the top contains the query "carbon nanotube*" and is highlighted with a red box. To the right of the search bar are dropdown menus for "Library Catalog and E-Resources" and "All", and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, there are filters for "All items", "that contain my query words", and "anywhere in the record". A callout box on the left points to the search bar and contains the text "Keywords: 'carbon nanotube*'". Another callout box on the right points to the "Library Catalog and E-Resources" dropdown and contains the text "Search Scope: Library Catalog and E-Resources". Below the search bar, there is a "Sort by" dropdown set to "Relevance", and a status bar showing "0 selected", "PAGE 1", and "1-10 of 803 Results". A callout box on the left points to the "Availability" section of the first result and contains the text "Availability: Held by library". The first result is a book titled "Carbon Nanotubes: From Basic Research to Nanotechnology" edited by Valentin N. Popov and Philippe Lambin. A callout box on the right points to a "HELP?" button and contains the text "HELP?".
