Status of Residence

What is Status of Residence?

→ p.7–8

- All foreign nationals entering and staying in Japan are assigned a status of residence at their port of entry.
- Your Status of Residence (visa status) is “Student.”

What is Status of Residence?

Your Status of Residence (visa status) is “Student.”

- If your visa status is not “Student,” you may not be eligible for some of the privileges, services, or scholarships available for international students.
- Students who hold “Student” status are not allowed to work unless they obtain permission from the Immigration Bureau to engage in other activities, such as part-time jobs.
→ p.21-22
- If you take a leave of absence or withdraw from Keio University, you will not be able to continue to stay in Japan under the Status of Residence of “Student,” even if there is time remaining on your student visa.
→ p.24-26

Residence Card

→ p.7-8

A Residence Card will be issued at the airport to mid to long term residents who have landing permission in Japan.

Part-time Work

→ p.21–24

- If you wish to engage in activities aside from your studies, such as part-time jobs, you must obtain a permit from the Immigration Bureau beforehand.
- Students granted a permit are allowed to work up to 28 hours a week (up to 8 hours a day, 40 hours a week, during summer, winter, and spring breaks) provided the employment does not involve adult entertainment or other industries prohibited by your visa status.

Special Re-entry Permit

→ p.17–20

- Make sure you have a valid passport and Residence Card if you will be temporarily leaving Japan. As a general rule, you will not be required to apply for a re-entry permit if you will be re-entering Japan within 1 year of your departure date.
- If you depart Japan with less than one year remaining on your period of stay, you must return prior to the expiration of your visa status.

Part 4

Living in Japan

International Student Handbook

- Contains lots of useful information.
- Helpful reference whenever you have a question.
- Digital version available online

Social Security and Tax Number System (My Number System)

→ p.89–90

The Japanese government began issuing unique Individual Numbers under the new Social Security and Tax Number System (the “My Number System”) from October 2015. Beginning from December 2024, the My Number Card will replace traditional health insurance cards.

After you receive it:

- Keep it in a safe place.
- Do not tell or show your card number to others. There are cases when you will be required to show your number to your employer or municipal offices.

Transportation

→ p.69–70

- A well-developed public transportation system eliminates the need for cars in the city.
- JR (Japan Railways), subways, private railways, and buses
- Student discounts for student commuter passes

Student Commuter Pass

→ p.70–72

- International students can purchase a student commuter pass (TSUGAKU TEIKI 通学定期)
You can obtain a “Student Commuter Certificate” from certificate issuing machines in the 14th Building.
- Apply online:
<https://www.students.keio.ac.jp/en/com/procedure/certificate/issue.html>
- ◆ IC commuter passes (Suica/PASMO):
Even if you use multiple railway lines (JR, Tokyo Metro, or other railway companies) to commute to campus, one IC card (Suica or PASMO) is sufficient to cover all transfers involved in your commute.

Part 5

Medical Care and Insurance

National Health Insurance (NHI; Kokuho 国保)

→ p.101–102

- Full-time international students who will be studying in Japan for more than 3 months must join NHI unless otherwise covered by the insurance plan of a family member residing in Japan. Overseas medical insurance is not accepted.

- Please apply for NHI at your City/Ward Office.

<https://www.city.yokohama.lg.jp/lang/residents/en/insurance/kokuhoenglish.html>

- Annual premiums: varies according to districts

Premiums: Approximately ¥1,500/month for international students who did not have any income to report in Japan during the previous fiscal year.

National Health Insurance (NHI)

→ p.101–102

At hospitals/medical institutions:

You pay 30% of the bill at medical institutions and NHI covers the remaining 70%. (Normal childbirth, general health check-ups, and plastic/cosmetic surgery are not covered.)

Total amount for medical care (covered under the National Health Insurance Law) 100 % (¥10,000)
Amount covered by NHI 70 % (¥7,000)	Individual payment using NHI 30 % (¥3,000)

Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research

→ p.105–106

- Students are automatically covered by this insurance. Keio University pays the premium. (Gakkensai 学研災)
- Covers any accidents that occur while attending lectures, participating in laboratory work, etc.
- Does not cover illness.
- Research students → Gakkenbai insurance coverage highly encouraged!

<https://www.keio.ac.jp/en/st/for-students/life/hoken-guide/>

Health Center

- Basic medical and referral services available at Keio Health Centers.
 - Yagami Campus (3F, 16th Building-A)
 - Hiyoshi Campus
- Campus medical services are fee-based.
- English-speaking doctors available off-campus

Student Counseling Room

➤ Room 101, 1F 26th Building

- Possible to consult with a counselor about a variety of issues.
- Counseling in English available. (Mondays at Yagami Campus)
- Consultations are confidential.

The Counseling Room provides advice regarding:

- Academic studies
- Extracurricular activities
- Life planning and career guidance
- Interpersonal relationships
- Queries regarding personality/behavioral concerns
- Physical and mental health issues
- Other student life-related issues

Part 6

Emergencies and Rules

Ambulance, Fire Department, Police

→p.95–96

Number to call in case of emergencies

- Fire/Ambulance: Call 119
- Police: Call 110

Calling 110 and 119 from public phones and mobile-phones is toll-free.

Inform the operator what happened (fire or emergency, etc.) and where it happened.

Earthquakes

→p.97–98

Earthquakes (jishin) occur on a regular basis in Japan. Please prepare accordingly.

Try not to panic and protect yourself when it happens.

➤ Emergency preparations

- Do not store items on top of tall cabinets.
- Secure furniture that could topple over with safety devices. (Able to be purchased at home improvement stores. Ask your dormitory for permission to install any devices beforehand as doing so may involve alterations to your room.)
- Know the locations of public evacuation areas and shelters. (usually parks or schoolyards)

➤ Read the “Emergency Pocketbook” carefully and always have it with you.

“Safety Tips” Mobile App

Safety Tips is a free app developed under the supervision of the Japan Tourism Agency that provides natural disaster information in Japan.

KOBAN 交番

(small neighborhood police stations)

There are over 220 Kobans in Yokohama City alone.

Look for the KOBAN 交番 sign whenever you need police help with:

- Directions if you are lost
- Reporting a loss or theft of items
- Reporting an accident
- Other help in emergencies

Liquor Laws and Rules in Japan

- The legal drinking age in Japan is 20.
- Keio University strictly prohibits reckless alcohol consumption. Never chug alcohol. Pressuring or forcing anyone to drink alcohol is prohibited. Causing harm to someone may result in criminal charges. Alcohol abuse must be avoided under any circumstances.

Drug Laws in Japan

Possession of any illegal drugs (this includes “soft drugs” such as Cannabis, LSD, MDMA, magic mushrooms, and many synthetic drugs, in addition to hard drugs and other controlled substances) is strictly prohibited in Japan. Penalties for possession, use, sale, and distribution of any illegal drugs in Japan are very strict, and convicted offenders face long jail sentences and fines.

Traffic Safety in Japan

➤ Please read “Traffic Safety Guidelines (for Pedestrians and Cyclists)” on the “Important Information Website” to thoroughly understand Japanese traffic rules.

➤ Registration required:

① Owner registration “Bohan Toroku” (anti-theft registration):

You will be assigned a number at the shop where you purchased your bicycle. Every bicycle must be registered with the police to help recover stolen bicycles.

◆ Items needed for “Bouhan touroku” procedures:

- Residence Card
- Registration Fee ¥ 700

Traffic Safety in Japan

② Bicycle parking registration: Register at the Office of Student Services (Student Life Services)

You are required to obtain a parking permit sticker to put on your bicycle if you want to park your bicycle on campus.

Park your bicycle ONLY at the location where you registered it. (Do not leave your bicycle unattended, even for a short time, anywhere other than the designated bicycle parking areas on Yagami Campus.)

Traffic Safety in Japan

- Update the bicycle registration information if the owner changes.

«Previous Owner» Fill out the “譲渡人” (Transferee) section of the “Transfer of Ownership Certificate” and go to the bicycle shop to have your bicycle’s security registration cancelled. Bring your ID card (Passport or Residence Card) and "Security Registration Card (Owner's Copy)." (In Japanese: "防犯登録カード (所有者控え)")

Give the completed "Transfer of Ownership Certificate" and "Security Registration Cancellation Certificate" to the person you have transferred ownership to.

«New Owner» Fill in the “Transferee (New Owner)” section (in Japanese: 譲受人 (新しい所有者)) in the “Transfer of Ownership Certificate.” Bring the bicycle, your ID card (Passport or Residence Card), new registration fee, and a completed "Bicycle Transfer Certificate" to a bicycle shop. You will also need to submit the previous owner’s “Security Registration Cancellation Certificate.”

Things to Submit Today

- Photocopy of Residence Card (Front & Back)

Please write your Student ID Number on the top-right-hand side of the copy and your mobile phone number if you have one.
