

Self-Guided Library Tour

Media Center for Science & Technology

START!

1F (Sosokan Bldg)

This is Lounge area. Light-reading books such as novels, travel guides as well as newspapers are available. Good for taking a break.

Let's move to the basement floor!

B1F
(Sosokan Bldg)

The Study Room is open even after the library is closed. It's also open on Sundays during the semester. (For night and Sunday use, application required).

Go through to the Main Building!

1F
(Main Bldg)

KOSMOS (online catalog) gives you details of where library item is held access the campuses.

Go up to the 2nd floor!

2F (Main Bldg)

Academic books are shelved on the 2nd floor. You can also request books held by other Keio libraries.

Academic journals, mainly located on the 1st floor, are arranged in alphabetical order by title. Mostly foreign journals are available via our website. KeioID is required to use electronic resources.

PCs are also available in the library. To log in, you need your own ITC account. Laptops can connect to Wifi by setting up with KeioID authentication.

Reference Desk offers assistance on resources of the library. (8:45 am to 5 pm on weekdays)

Theses/Dissertations are shelved in the corner room. Electronic papers submitted after fall semester in 2010 are available "ΣStar" limited in Yagami campus.

The Group Study Room is suitable for discussion. No reservation is needed to use the room. You can also rent a projector.

Idea room is appropriate for group study as well. You can write down your ideas on the all-whiteboard wall.

Back to the 1st floor!

GOAL!