Special Measures for Applicants in Areas Hit by Large-scale Natural Disasters

For the purpose of reducing the financial burden on applicants who live in areas affected by large-scale natural disasters (areas designated by the Japanese Government as having experienced a "Disaster of Extreme Severity"), Keio may take special measures based on the situation in the affected areas. For details and application materials, refer to the following information.

Security Export Controls

To ensure that the content of education and research for students does not interfere with the maintenance of international peace and security, Keio University maintains security export controls based on the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act. Under these controls, the university confirms in advance whether the permission of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry is required before exporting/transferring goods and technologies outside Japan, or before providing international students and researchers in Japan with access to those technologies. As a result, students may not be able to receive the education you desire, you may not be able to conduct research, or you may be asked to change the content of your desired education or research.

*For details on security export controls, please refer to the website of the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry.

* If you wish to request a faculty member not listed herein as your preferred supervisor after enrollment, please contact the Academic Affairs Group for Graduate Admissions by email at least three days prior to the Online Registration deadline.

<Preliminary Inquiry to Preferred Supervisor>

Be sure to check in advance the profiles of faculty members and their fields of expertise on the website.

<https://www.econ.keio.ac.jp/en/about/faculty-list>

Through the following form, you may inquire in advance of a preferred academic supervisor as to whether the research field you wish to pursue is within the scope of the supervisor's ability to supervise you. No other inquiries are accepted.

Inquiries will be accepted until two weeks before the start of application online registration. Please note that we cannot respond to inquiries after this period.

Inquiries are optional. You will not necessarily receive a response from the supervisor. Furthermore, it is not guaranteed that you will pass the entrance exam.

2 – 8. Examination Slip

Once the application documents arrive at Keio, the documents will be reviewed, and if the application is accepted, an e-mail will be sent to the applicant. Please download and print out an Examination Slip during the release period (refer to p.5).

Keio University will not send Examination Slips by post. If the examination slip is not released by the date listed on p. 5, please contact the Academic Affairs Group for Graduate Admissions.

After you print out the Examination Slip, please check your name, the name of the Graduate School, and all other details for any inaccuracies. Contact us as soon as possible if you find any incorrect information on the slip.

On the examination day, you must bring the slip to the examination. Please fold it along the lines indicated.

2 – 9. Applicant Eligibility Certification Only for those who apply to note on p.4

This is not a procedure to be completed by all applicants. Whether you need this application or not can be checked on p. 4.

Applicants who fall under the qualifications 6 or 8 for the Master’s Program and 4 for the Doctoral Program are required to apply for “Applicant Eligibility Certification” screening. Please submit the following forms to the Academic Affairs Group for Graduate Admissions. There is no application fee for this confirmation process.

Handling of late arrivals due to disruptions or delays in public transportation (excluding buses and taxis)

If public transportation in the vicinity of the examination site is significantly disrupted or delayed, and the University judges that this will affect many students on the day of the examination, the start time of the entire examination may be moved back to a time that does not interfere with the administration of the examination. However, the University will not be held responsible for any personal damage incurred by the examinee as a result of this.

If the start time is changed on the day of the examination, it will be announced on the website below.

<https://www.keio.ac.jp/en/grad-admissions/>

Entering Japan to Take Entrance Examinations at Keio University

“Certificate of Permission to Take Entrance Examinations” will be issued to applicants from outside of Japan as needed. If you need this certificate, for example, to obtain a visa for the purpose of taking the examination, please apply for it using the form provided on the website below.

<https://www.keio.ac.jp/en/grad-admissions/other/visa/>

4. Examination Method

Application Period I : Master's Program

First Screening — Written Examination (Economics)

Time	Subjects
9:00 a.m. – 10:20 a.m.	Economics (Applicant will be required to answer some questions to assess their fundamental understanding of economics or adjacent fields. You can choose to take the exam either in English or in Japanese.)

<Notes>

1. Bring a copy of the Examination Slip with you and arrive at the examination site by 8:45 a.m., 15 minutes before the examination starts.
2. Use a pencil (black, HB or B), a mechanical pencil (black, HB or B), or a pen (black or blue ink, including ball point pens) on the written examination.
3. Depending on academic performance, the Graduate School of Economics may exempt some fourth-year students from the Faculty of Economics at Keio University from the first screening. For more information, refer to the website of the Graduate School of Economics.

Second Screening — Interview on Research Plan and Academic Knowledge

In the second screening, the Graduate School of Economics comprehensively evaluates applicants based on their undergraduate academic performance, confidential reports on the applicant, and an interview concerning their research plan and academic knowledge.

Detailed information about the second screening (meeting time and venue) will be indicated at the announcement of the first screening results. Applicants who are exempt from the first screening are also required to check the announcement of the first screening results.

Applicants who are late for the designated meeting time will not be permitted to take the interview. The estimated interview time is 20 minutes.

Among applicants who are eligible for exemption from the first screening and who designate their seminar (zemi) supervisor in the Faculty of Economics as their preferred supervisor in the master's program, the second screening may also be exempted based on an evaluation of the submitted application documents. Whether the applicant is exempted from the second screening will be indicated at the time of the announcement of the first screening results.

Application Period II : Master's Program / Application Period I & II : Doctoral Program

First Screening — Document Screening

The first screening is based on document screening. Review of submitted papers will be conducted to examine the broad and foundational knowledge, degree of expertise, and facility to conduct research in a specialized field of economics. The subject of the paper must be limited to Economics or adjacent fields.

Second Screening — Interview

In the second screening, the Graduate School of Economics comprehensively evaluates applicants based on their thesis, and an interview concerning their research plan and academic knowledge. Detailed information about the second screening (meeting time and venue) will be indicated in the announcement of the first screening results on the Online Result Inquiry website. Applicants who are late for the designated meeting time will not be permitted to take the interview. Estimated interview time is 20 minutes for the master's program and 40 minutes for the doctoral program.

Notes on Examination — Applicable both to Master's and Doctoral Program

1. Follow the examination proctor's instructions during the examination.
2. Applicants are not allowed to leave the room during the examination. If there is an unavoidable reason, such as sudden sickness, please raise your hand and follow the proctor's instructions (no time extension will be given for any time lost).

3. In addition to the examination slip, the only items that are permitted on the desk while you are taking an exam are pencils (black), mechanical pencils (black), pens (black or blue), ballpoint pens (black or blue), erasers, pencil sharpeners (excluding large electric sharpeners and knives), clock (excluding those that also functions as a dictionary, calculator, etc., those with a second hand that makes a sound, and large clocks; stopwatches are not permitted), glasses, and masks. No other personal belongings may be placed on the desk.
4. Bring your watch as there is no clock in the examination room. Only watches which simply display the time are allowed. Applicants are not allowed to bring watches with translation functions, calculators, or any other functions besides displaying the time. You are not allowed to use alarm functions on watches, nor can you use the clock function on mobile phones.
5. Switch off your communication devices such as mobile phones, smartphones, and tablets and keep them inside your bag. Communication devices that cannot be turned off are not permitted at the examination venue. Furthermore, communication devices that may make a sound due to an alarm function, etc., must be set so that they do not sound, and the device must be turned off. If communication devices, clocks, etc., sound, vibrate, or cause any other disturbance during the exams and the bag or other item containing the device is identified, an examination proctor may remove it from the examination venue without the owner's permission.
6. You are permitted to wear a coat, etc., while taking the exams. Hats and sunglasses are not permitted. Regarding other clothing, please follow any instructions you receive from an examination proctor.
7. If you need to use a handkerchief, tissues, a cushion, lap blanket, eye drops, nasal drops, etc., please raise your hand and inform an examination proctor.
8. "Ear plugs" are not permitted as you may not be able to hear the instructions, etc., of the examination proctors.
9. In principle, no special measures will be taken in response to everyday noise (aircrafts; cars; wind or rain; noise from air conditioners; noise made by animals; coughing, sneezing, and sniffing by other examinees; sounds made by cell phones or music players; etc.).
10. The following actions may be considered cheating. In these cases, a proctor may interrupt you to ascertain the situation. The test time will not be extended. If the action is judged to be cheating, the applicant will not be allowed to continue the examination, and all examinations for the academic year will be deemed invalid. Any application fees will not be refunded.
 - ◆ Cheating (e.g., looking at cheat sheets, books, someone's paper, or being supplied answers)
 - ◆ Looking up answers using non-permitted items.
 - ◆ Starting to answer questions before the examination starts.
 - ◆ Holding pens or erasers, or continuing to answer questions after the examination ends.
 - ◆ Giving specific applicants an advantage, such as telling them answers.
 - ◆ Having mobile phones or portable music players with you during the examination.
 - ◆ Playing any sounds, such as ringtones, alarms, or vibrating sounds from any devices such as mobile phones, watches, or portable music players.
 - ◆ Bothering other applicants.
 - ◆ Not following proctors' instructions.
 - ◆ Pretending to be another applicant and taking the examination in their stead.
 - ◆ Any other actions undermining the fairness and transparency of the examination.

● On the day of the examination, examinees who have an infectious disease for which attendance is suspended under the School Health and Safety Act and which has not yet been cured may not take the examination, as there is a risk of infecting other students or supervisors. However, this does not apply in cases where the school doctor or other physician has determined that there is no risk of infection. Please note that even in cases where an examinee refrains from taking the examination due to the above reasons, no make-up examinations or refunds of the application fee will be made.

5. Admission Decision Process and Criteria

Admission is determined by the Graduate School Committee based on a comprehensive evaluation of the written examination, admissions screening thesis, oral examination, research plan, application form, and other relevant materials. The relative weight assigned to each evaluation component is determined appropriately according to the applicant’s intended field of study and research content. Applicants are assessed from multiple perspectives, including academic aptitude, research capability, the quality of the proposed research plan at the time of admission, and the appropriateness of their motivation for applying.

6. Announcement of Screening Results

Please access the URL given below and confirm the results of your application via the “Announcement of Results” button with the applicants’ examination number and security code, which you obtained as part of the online registration. For further details of the time and date of announcement, refer to section 3. Entrance Examination Schedule and Venues. Queries concerning screening results will not be accepted.

Total (First Year)		1,149,200	819,200	554,650	394,650

1. Fees excluding Student Health Care Mutual Aid Association Registration Fee can be paid in two installments in the Spring and Fall semesters (payment amounts given in parentheses). The fee for the Fall semester should be paid by the end of October every year. For payment of academic fees and expenses after enrollment, please contact the Keio University Office of Finance (E-mail: keio_tuition@info.keio.ac.jp).

2. Expenses which the university is entrusted to collect (materials distribution fee and other course-related fees, Mita Journal of Economics and research-related fees, student government fee, Student Health Care Mutual Aid fee) are subject to change as necessary by academic year while you are enrolled.

3. The Student Health Care Mutual Aid fee includes a 100 yen registration fee. However, students who have completed a master's program at a Keio University Graduate School and will enroll at another Graduate School, or students who have completed a master's program and will enroll in a doctoral program before a year has passed are not required to pay the registration fee.

4. Please note that the sliding scale system as stipulated in the University Regulations will be applied to determine the annual amount you will be required to pay for the registration fee and tuition. The standard for the rate of increase is based on the slide rate (rate of increase for salaries of civil servants as recommended by the National Personnel Authority).

9 – 2. Withdrawal and Refund of Academic Fees

In principle, Keio will not refund the fees that you have already paid. However, the full amount of the fees will be refunded only if the procedures to withdraw have been completed by the specified deadline after the completion of all admissions procedures.

Please note that your eligibility for admission may be revoked if it is confirmed that the submitted documents contain false information or fraudulently obtained certificates have been submitted. In such cases, all fees paid up to that point will not be refunded.

9 – 3. Scholarships

Please refer to the following website about Keio University Scholarships.

<https://www.students.keio.ac.jp/en/com/scholarships/apply/form.html>

<https://www.ic.keio.ac.jp/en/life/scholarship/>

9 – 4. Keio University Education Promotion Funds (Donation) and Keio University Bonds (School Bonds)

Gift giving is an effective way to participate in further enriching the educational environment at Keio. Detailed information (Japanese language only) will be sent to those who have completed the enrollment process.

Keio University Education Promotion Funds (Donation) 30,000 JPY per unit

Making donations of two units or more per year would be greatly appreciated.

Keio University Bonds (School Bonds) 100,000 JPY per unit

Applying three or more units would be greatly appreciated. The total amount applied for bonds will be reimbursed upon completion of the graduate course or when leaving Keio.
